Four Brothers Capture Town of Montgomery - Posse Drives Hhem from the City Into the Mountains.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 11 .- As the result of the killing of Constable Walter One Vermont, One Boston and Two New Jackson in Montgomery by Policeman Elliott on Wednesday and the subsequent capture of the town by the four brothers of Jackson at the head of about forty of their friends, a reign of terror exists there. The mayor, being helpless, appealed to Sheriff Daniels yesterday Sheriff Daniels and John Rolf, a prominent citizen, were killed by Ed. Jackson yesterday, and then the saloons at once closed and Governor White was asked to send troops. The governor replied he would hold troops in readiness but advised forming a large posse. If the posse should meet with serious resistance troops will be sent to their relief. The Jackson followers escaped to mountain strongholds with which to mountain strongholds with which they are familiar. Ernest and Bob Jackson were arrested and brought to this city by Deputy Sher-iff Davis and others and placed in jail. A posse headed by Marshal Ash of Thurmond is scouring the mountains near Mrs. Roosevelt Will Also Go to St. Louis Montgomery. Two bloodingands were placed on the trail today. Further troube is feared as sentiment against the Chief Hundley at the Ruffner Hotel, A Mrs. Roosevelt objected to the Presidentive of Jackson appeared at the hotel and attempted to reach the room of the policeman. He was prevented by the attaches.

Mrs. Roosevelt objected to the President's visit to the fair, just as she objected to his visit to the Charleston exposition. She has a dread of accidents.

Reports from the posse say that Ed.

Jackson was chased into a cave last night, when, it was decided to wait for daylight for his capture. Although the place was surrounded during the night, Jackson escaped and was reported at large today. The posse has been increased to 350. Meantime the friends of Jackson are reported to be openly.

Mrs. Roosevelt will also take some of the Roosevelt children. It is not known which ones, but Miss Alice will understood to the party. It has not been decide who else will be invited, but probably all the members of the cabinet. Secretary Loeb says that the party will not be a large one.

Americans were nothing if not generons, and he knew that especially from the lickings they had given him. Those lickings had always been ladled out to him in no stingy way and had left him in no kind of doubt as to how he was getting on. He had had a little experience of American saffors, and he could testify that they had nothing to learn so far as handling a boat was concerned. He hoped that when he next went across to their country with the Shamrock IV., which he hoped would be at no far distant date, they would let him down gently. In conclusion he said he was convinced that Americans were the best friends the English had, and he hoped the union jack and the stars and stripes would long be lutertwined in peaceful and loving har-
